Another Riding Season Draws to a Close

With the falling leaves and temperatures, it looks like another riding season is drawing to a close. We do, however, have one more very important ride to offer in the Light up Night Ride on Friday November 18th. I would encourage each of you to consider attending as this year's ride will have special meaning in that it will be the first annual Vince Capane Memorial Ride. Ever since I joined the club in 2011 Vince was always the organizer of the first and last rides of each year. This year I will be filling in to lead the ride to Mount Washington in his honor. The ride is short and we work hard to keep it safe even though it is a night ride. This year has certainly had its ups and downs like no other riding season I can remember. Please join us in celebrating the events of the year and Vince who always looked forward to this ride each fall.
